

7 Ways to Engage Your Employees in 2019

As a business owner, it's important to put the customer first, but equally important is making sure your employees are engaged, meaning they feel a connection with your company and are motivated to do a good job.

Amazingly, only 15% of employees worldwide are engaged!

Businesses that effectively engage their employees:

SEE GREATER CUSTOMER LOYALTY

233%

OUTPERFORM OTHER BUSINESSES

202%

REDUCE EMPLOYEE TURNOVER

65%

GROW REVENUE FASTER

26%

SUPPLY THE RIGHT TOOLS & TECHNOLOGY

3 out of 4 employees in America believe employers don't give them access to the latest technology to do their jobs efficiently.

About 40% of workers say they left a company because they lacked access to state-of-the-art digital tools, and 58% say they need to work elsewhere to gain digital skills.

PROVIDE TRAINING & ENCOURAGE LEARNING

Businesses with a strong learning culture enjoy employee engagement and retention rates 30 - 50% higher than businesses that don't.

Offering career training and development would keep 86% of millennials from leaving their current position.

ENCOURAGE SOCIAL CONNECTIONS

88% of employees rate their relationship with their coworkers as important to their job satisfaction.

Women who have a best friend at work are more than twice as likely to be engaged (63%) compared with the women who say otherwise (29%).

LEAD BY EXAMPLE

Belief in senior leadership is the #1 factor in creating positive employee engagement.

58% of workers say they'd start a job with a lower salary if that meant working for a great boss.

85% of employees say they are likely to stay longer with an employer that shows a high level of social responsibility.

Employees who feel their voice is heard at work are

4.6x more likely to feel empowered to perform their best work.

LISTEN TO YOUR EMPLOYEES

OFFER FLEXIBLE WORK OPTIONS

75% of workers say they experience greater productivity at home because they encounter fewer distractions:

Fewer interruptions from colleagues (74%)

Less stress from commuting (71%)

Less office politics (65%)

CELEBRATE ACCOMPLISHMENTS & APPRECIATE YOUR EMPLOYEES

Limited recognition and praise is the #1 reason people leave jobs.

79% of people who quit their jobs cite "lack of appreciation" as their reason for leaving.

70% of employees say that motivation and morale would improve massively if managers said "thank you" more often.
